

Food Allergies and Intolerances in Ireland

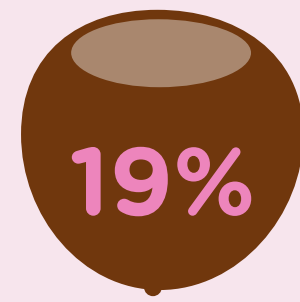

1 in 5 Irish mums have children with food allergies

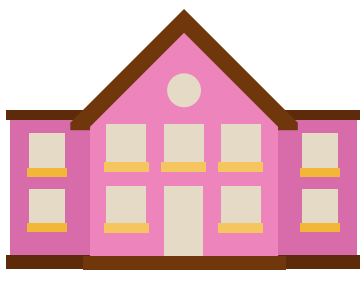

Eggs

Milk

Nuts

60%

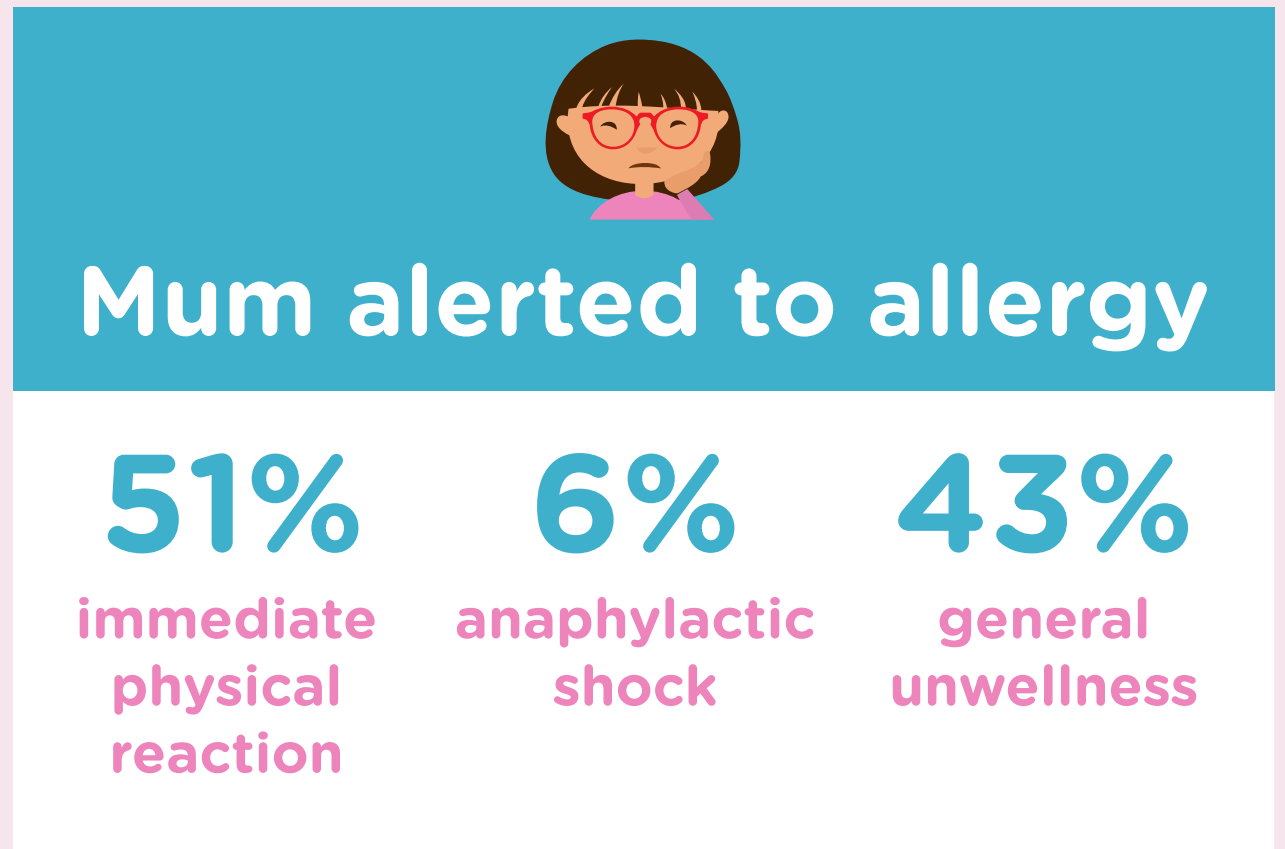

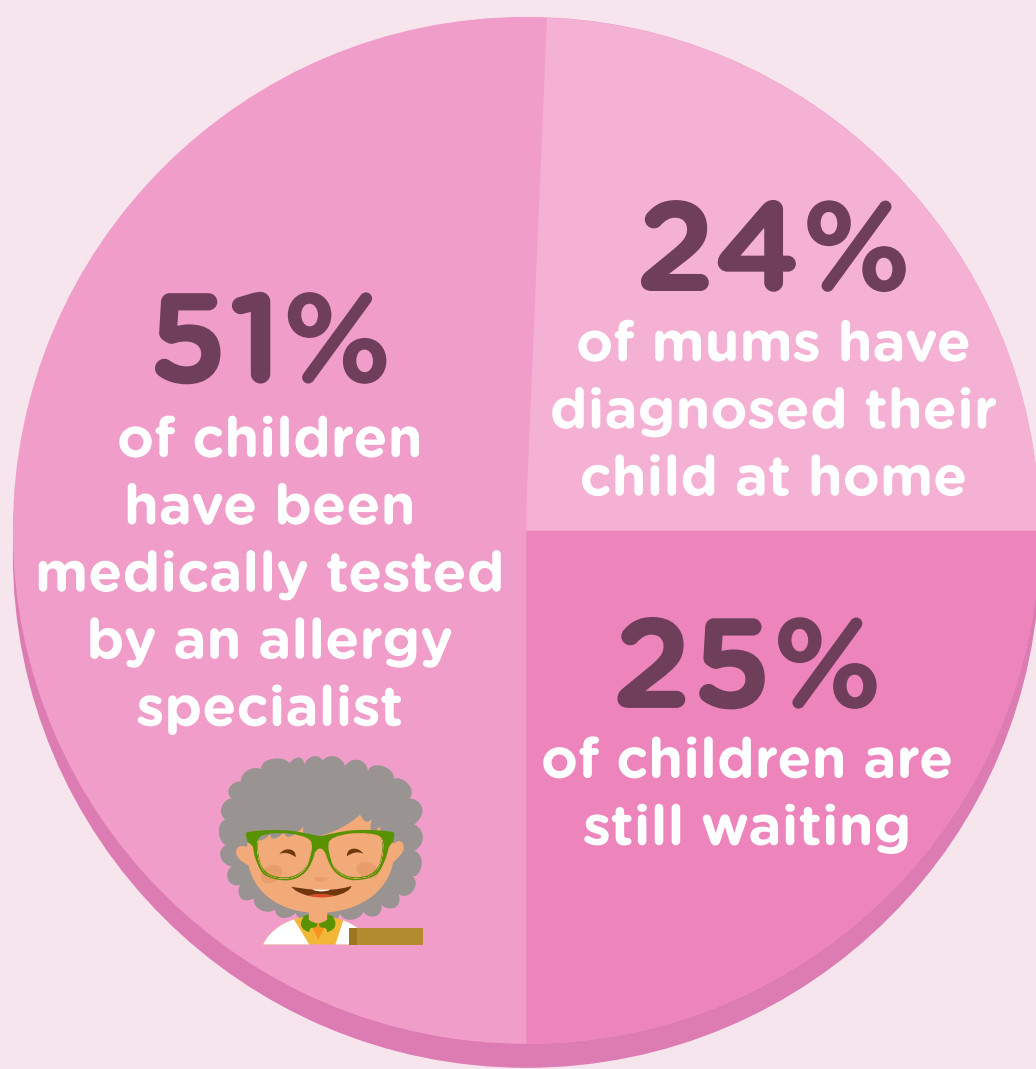

of schools in Ireland have no food allergy policy

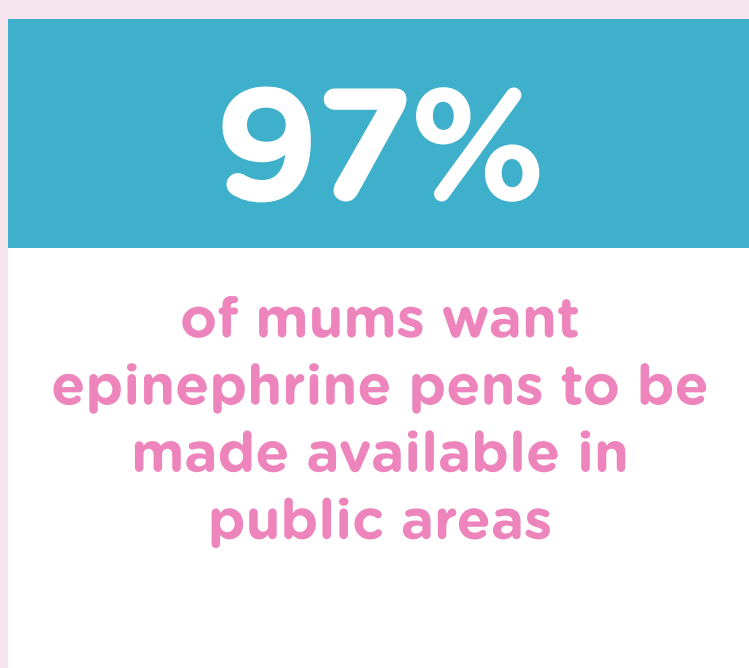

96%

of mums want the Government to make it mandatory for schools to introduce a food allergy policy

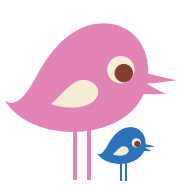

82% of mums are unhappy with our paediatric allergy services with 1 to 2 year waiting times reported

Most pharmacists surveyed were confused as to whether to dispense an epinephrine pen in the event of an emergency without prescription

95% of mums living with an allergy sufferer has changed their shopping habits, diet and lifestyles dramatically

About MummyPages.ie

MummyPages.ie is Ireland's biggest community of mums. With over 500,000 unique users per month from all over the island of Ireland, MummyPages.ie engages with mums on everything from pre-pregnancy, to parenting and family life. MummyPages.ie is a part of Sheology Digital, a digital publishing house leading the market in reaching women online in Ireland.

The MummyPages.ie 'Food Allergy & Intolerances' survey was conducted over a four week period up to 10th October 2014 with over 1,036 respondents.